BUILDING A PRO-LIFE FUTURE

Thursday, July 7

Workshops
2:15 PM- 3:30 PM

Using the Web to Attract New Members, Inform the Public, and Raise Money for your Pro-Life Organization
Scott Fischbach, Patrick McGee, Luis Zaffirini

Belmont 2
Recording 1

Make the Internet work for you. The younger generation looks to the web for their information and you have an opportunity to provide what they want and need on the life issues. If you can't make a good first impression, they will leave and probably never return, and you want them to return. They are potential members, potential financial supporters, and potential volunteers. The speakers in this session will discuss how to make your website the very best and most appealing site possible, as well as offer practical tips you need to know to set your group up to take donations online, and some of the best practices for expanding your donor base. You will learn more about the use of websites and email campaigns to benefit your organization.

The Abortion-Breast Cancer Link: The Biological Basis, The Studies, and the Fraud
Angela Lanfranchi, M.D.

Belmont 3
Recording 2

Dr. Lanfranchi will review the biologic basis with breast development and maturation that accounts for the ABC Link and the studies which support the Link. She will review the widespread fraudulent behavior among scientists and medical organizations to obfuscate the link.

IRS and Non-Profit Compliance
James Bopp, Jr., J.D.

Belmont 4
Recording 3

Mr. Bopp will discuss the recent efforts of the IRS to muzzle conservative groups and how pro-life groups can comply with the IRS requirements for non-profit organizations.

Down Syndrome- What Prenatal Testing Won't Tell You
Eileen Haupt

Sully
Recording 4

A tragically high number of babies diagnosed with Down syndrome, while still in the womb, are aborted. New, non-invasive prenatal tests threaten to reduce the number of babies born with Down syndrome even further. It is critical for pro-lifers to understand more about Down syndrome and the ramifications of using prenatal testing and abortion to eliminate babies with this condition. Eileen will provide information and interesting facts about Down syndrome, the connection between prenatal testing and abortion, how new research may lead to treatment of cognitive impairment, and will share the reality, especially the joys, of having a child with Down syndrome.

Internet Tips and Tricks: Reaching your Audience via Facebook, Twitter, Etc.
Steven Ertelt

Piedmont 1
Recording 5

You've made a website for your pro-life organization or outreach. Now, how do you reach people? Learn the latest inside information on promoting your website via search engines, keyword advertising, Facebook, Twitter, and elsewhere. Your pro-life message can reach thousands for little to no cost with these tips and tricks.

Organizing a Successful Latino Outreach
Raimundo Rojas

Piedmont 2
Recording 6

Latinos are the largest minority in the United States and a natural pro-life constituency. The Latino Outreach of the National Right to Life Committee aims to work with those wanting to educate and work with Latinos on the life issues. Learn the best practices for effectively working to spread the pro-life message in the Latino community.

Workshops
3:45 PM- 5:00 PM

The Escalating Struggle at The UN to Prevent the Establishing of Abortion as a Fundamental Human Right Worldwide, Part 1

Belmont 2
Recording 7

Jeanne Head, R.N.; Scott Fischbach

Jeanne E. Head, R.N., National Right to Life vice president for international affairs representative to the United Nations, and Scott Fischbach, executive director of MCCL and MCCL Global Outreach will describe ongoing battles at the U.N. in New York and elsewhere to prevent the establishment of abortion as a fundamental human right worldwide and, in particular, the increasing threats to the unborn in African and Latin American countries.

The Conspiracy of Silence: Roadblocks to Getting Abortion Facts to the Public

Belmont 3
Recording 8

Priscilla Coleman, Ph.D.; Eve Silver; Wanda Franz, Ph.D.

Do you really know what abortion is doing to women? Why don't we know more about the damage caused by abortion after 44 years of legalized abortion in America?

Developments in Campaign Finance

Belmont 4
Recording 9

James Bopp, Jr., J.D.

Mr. Bopp will discuss the federal and state campaign finance law developments after the 2010 Supreme Court case Citizens United v FEC, particularly the recent Supreme Court decision in McCutcheon v FEC, in which Mr. Bopp represented the Republican National Committee. In addition, he will discuss the importance of judicial elections to the pro-life movement, the First Amendment protections for judicial candidates in judicial elections, and recent developments regarding regulation of robocalls for political purposes.

Using Effective Presentations to Inform the Public and Expand Your Base

Sully
Recording 10

Leo LaLonde

How did you become active in the right-to-life movement? Some may have different answers but 90 percent of the time it is because someone made an effective presentation. In this workshop, we will discuss how you, as a speaker, can overcome reluctance and make effective presentations. We will show you how you can use multi-media presentations to underscore your words and how advance preparation makes it all easy.

Making Media work for You, or, How to Bypass the Filter

Piedmont 1
Recording 11

Derrick Jones, Cheryl Ciamarra, Pam Rucinski

Earned media coverage is great. Free media coverage is better. But how do you achieve free coverage without sacrificing truly earned coverage? While you may have an effective press outreach program in your organization, there are times you need to get your message out to the public without going through the filter of a news organization. Using successful examples, from public service announcements to viral videos, this workshop will explore how to build an effective advertising and marketing program that will get your unfiltered message out and potentially achieve free media coverage in the process.

By the Numbers: Understanding Abortion Polling Data

Piedmont 2
Recording 12

David N. O'Steen, Ph.D.

If you get confused with the ever-growing number of polls on the abortion issue and want to know and understand exactly what they mean, this session is for you! Dr. O'Steen will explain the importance of understanding how to read polls on the abortion and euthanasia issues, the necessity of correctly phrasing the question asked in a poll, and how to better understand polling results.

Thursday, July 7

Workshops 5:15 PM- 6:30 PM

Raising Money Through Planned Giving and Special Events

Scott Fischbach, Don Parker

Belmont 2

Recording 13

The speakers in this workshop will address important aspects of fundraising, including planned giving – which includes wills, bequests, and other similar vehicles for giving. Helping donors plan for their financial benefit and to leave a legacy with their support are all important topics that will be discussed. The speakers will also discuss how to give new and existing donors the opportunity to participate and contribute through special events.

Terri's Legacy: Building a Network That Will Save Lives

Bobby Schindler

Belmont 3

Recording 14

It's every family's worst nightmare – a loved one is desperately ill and doctors refuse treatment on the grounds that the care is futile. Where do you turn? Whom do you call? Hospital ethics committees, family members who stand to gain financially, and promoters of the euthanasia movement are working together to end the lives of the medically vulnerable every day. It is time for the pro-life movement to stand in the gap and do what it does best advocate for life. Find out how you can help the Terri Schiavo Life and Hope Network build a nationwide network of medical and legal professionals willing to step in and advocate for the lives of those who are at risk. The time to act is now – the lives you save could be closer to home than you ever thought possible.

Surviving Unplanned Pregnancies

Hon. Lynda Bell, Ingrid Duran

Belmont 4

Recording 15

A mother whose teenage daughter unexpectedly became pregnant and a young mother who experienced teenage pregnancy will tell their personal stories. Learn from each of these two unique perspectives in this workshop. This session deals with the importance of parental involvement in an abortion decision and how to effectively build a pro-life culture that positively responds to teenage pregnancy.

Raising Money to Build Chapters

Kevin Allen, Michele Arocha Allen

Sully

Recording 16

Raising money and building chapters goes hand in hand. Learn how relationships and trust in your organization brings in money and activates volunteers to protect life. This workshop will discuss the rules of raising money, proven fundraising techniques, and the how-to of specific chapter fundraisers. You will learn to raise funds, build your volunteer base, and activate members.

The Church, The Media, The State

Rev. Frank Pavone, Ernest L. Ohlhoff, Steven Ertelt

Piedmont 1

Recording 17

This workshop will present the latest tactics used by the State (Congress, Administration, Courts, IRS, FEC, etc.), to manipulate and acquire more power and to suppress whatever stands in the way of their political agenda. It will also cover how media bias works to spread its "Political Correctness" (new pseudo religious beliefs) to the general public. Finally, the workshop will cover where you can get the most reliable and accurate information and how you can begin to counter the power grabs and misinformation being disseminated.

The Rise of the DIY Abortion

Raimundo Rojas, Randall K. O'Bannon, Ph.D.

Piedmont 2

Recording 18

With abortionists harder to find, many in the industry are actively promoting the idea of self-induced abortion using cheap drugs sold on the market for other non-abortifacient purposes. Dr. O'Bannon will talk about what these drugs are and how they work and Mr. Rojas, NRLC's director of Latino outreach, will explain how these have especially insinuated themselves in the Latino community.

BUILDING A PRO-LIFE FUTURE

Friday, July 8

Workshops

11:15 AM- 12:30 PM

Pro-Life Concerns About Girl Scouts Ann Saladin

Belmont 2
Recording 19

Should pro-lifers and parents support Girl Scouts? Get the facts! While the Girl Scouts (USA) says it takes no stance on abortion, former Girl Scouts and pro-life leaders say otherwise. This workshop will help sort facts from fiction, document the problems, and explain why the Girl Scout controversy matters so much.

Finding Your Place In the Pro-Life World Christine Rousselle, Zoey DiMauro

Belmont 3
Recording 20

Learn from two young people about their experiences as pro-life activists in college and how they transitioned to participate as young adult activists in "the real world." Speakers will discuss how college activism connects to state and local right to life organizations and how to increase and foster that growth across generations.

Assisted Suicide Battles Rage In Nearly Every State- Is Your State Next? Mary Hahn Beerworth, Jennifer Popik, J.D.; Scott Fischbach

Belmont 4
Recording 21

The threat of doctor-prescribed suicide is advancing in the states. Moreover, the next Supreme Court nomination could lead to legalization of euthanasia nationwide. Assisting suicide is now legal in California, Oregon, Washington, Vermont, and, via the courts in Montana. With battles raging in states across the country, the ongoing battle in Vermont will be discussed as will other battles nationwide. This workshop will give background and break open the myths surrounding doctor-prescribed suicide. The speakers will cover the current legal and legislative landscape, describe some different kinds of successful winning (and losing strategies), and talk about what you can do in your own state. In the wake of massive state legislative push and upcoming Supreme Court nominations, it is more important than ever that doctor-prescribed suicide be stopped in its tracks.

Are You a Persuasive Pro-Lifer? Tips for Changing Hearts and Minds Benjamin Clapper

Sully
Recording 22

Do you feel you have trouble persuasively presenting the pro-life position to others? Need a few tips on how to be a more effective communicator? Join this workshop to become a more persuasive pro-lifer as we set a goal of a "conversation a day" to change the hearts and minds of our nation towards life.

Providing Support and Leadership in Churches

NPRC: Marie Bowen, Rev. John Brown, Ernest L. Ohlhoff, Rev. Frank Pavone, Rev. Kirk van der Swaagh, Arina Grossu, Rev. Dennis DiMauro, Georgette Forney, Rev. Paul Stallworth, Thomas Glessner, J.D.

Piedmont 1
Recording 23

The National Pro-Life Religious Council consists of representatives from a variety of denominations. The workshop will present suggestions and strategies to help individuals and local pro-life groups strengthen the outreach within the pro-life churches and how to bring patient, courteous, and persistent persuasion to churches that do not express a pro-life position. This workshop will provide handouts and at least one third of the workshop will be devoted to questions and answers.

Social Media for Right to Life Groups Luis Zaffirini, Andrew Bair

Piedmont 2
Recording 24

An online presence is essential for any group seeking change, particularly a right-to-life group. This workshop offers comprehensive instruction on using social media basics like Twitter and Facebook as online complements to traditional grassroots activism. Learn about operating a variety of social media accounts to engage pro-lifers, integrate accounts within websites and email campaigns, and more.

Workshops

1:45 PM- 3:00 PM

Crafting the Pro-Life Message for Traditional and New Media Jessica Rodgers, Zoey DiMauro

Belmont 2
Recording 25

Learn to tailor your message to whichever audience you encounter, whether through traditional news media (print, letters, etc.) or new media (social networks or blogs). Successfully communicating the right to life message depends heavily on using the appropriate strategies paired with the correct communications vehicle. Learn from two pro-life bloggers how to get the job done right.

Jaxon Strong-A Living Testament that Every Life Has Value Brandon Buell, Arina Grossu, M.A.

Belmont 3
Recording 26

Brandon, father of Jaxon and co-founder with his wife, Brittany, of The Jaxon Strong Foundation, will discuss, in detail, Jaxon's diagnosis and life. He will also discuss the Foundation that has been formed in dedication to Jaxon to help raise awareness for neurological research, advocate for individuals living with disabilities and share the belief that every life has value and a purpose. Arina Grossu, the director of the Center for Human Dignity at the Family Research Council, will share how we can support families like the Buells who receive an adverse prenatal diagnosis.

"Advanced Care Planning"- Helping You to Enforce Your Wishes or Nudging You to Accept Premature Death? Jennifer Popik, J.D.

Belmont 4
Recording 27

Learn how "advance care planning" mavens are using wily methods to "nudge" people into agreeing to sign away their right to live – and how to resist.

Abortion Statistics and Evidence for the Effect of the Pro-Life Movement Gunter Franz, Ph.D.

Sully
Recording 28

In this workshop, Dr. Franz will present a presentation and discussion of (1) abortion statistics over time, (2) the effect of repeat abortions, (3) demographic data, (4) the effect of passing pro-life laws on the state level, and (5) an estimate of the positive effect of the pro-life work as deduced from the abortion rate.

Overcoming Apathy and Pro-Abortion Opposition in All Denominations Marie Bowen, Rev. Kirk van der Swaagh

Piedmont 1
Recording 29

The speakers in this workshop, one a pastor and one a ruling elder, are working to establish and strengthen a pro-life base in their respective denominations. One denomination is openly pro-life and one leans heavily pro-abortion. Presenters will review the process and activities they are pursuing to build pro-life support with pastors and members at a local level as well as coordinating efforts to pass pro-life resolutions at the denominations' annual meetings. Practical suggestions will be made by these experienced leaders on how best to begin the process of changing hearts and minds by being living witnesses of the Gospel message on life.

Working With the Press: It's All About Relationships Michele Arocha Allen, Derrick Jones

Piedmont 2
Recording 30

How do you ensure fair and accurate coverage of pro-life issues when many journalists begin their reporting from a pro-choice viewpoint and don't fully understand the breadth and scope of the right-to-life movement? Seemingly the deck is stacked against us because they've developed misconceptions about our efforts to save lives. However, with an effective press outreach centered on relationship building, we can effectively change those misconceptions, and enhance a journalist's understanding of the pro-life issues, even if they don't agree with us. In this workshop, you'll learn tips and tricks for building an effective press outreach program, building working relationships with journalists, and practical ways to encourage fair and accurate coverage of right-to-life issues.

Friday, July 8

Workshops 3:15 PM- 4:30 PM

BUILDING A PRO-LIFE FUTURE

Margaret Sanger and Planned Parenthood: The Eugenics Connection

Belmont 2

Angela Franks, Ph.D.

Recording 31

This workshop will address the history of Planned Parenthood, going back to its founder, Margaret Sanger. Topics will include Sanger's position on eugenics, the institutionalization of these ideas in Planned Parenthood and population control movements, and the continuation of eugenic ideas today.

Fund-Raising: Direct Mail, Telemarketing and Prospecting: The Importance of Growing Your Base of Support

Belmont 3

Kevin Allen, Don Parker

Recording 32

The speakers will provide information on the three key areas of fundraising in general, and offer specific ideas and techniques on building a strong, firm base of support for the right-to-life movement. Proven ways of maximizing your fundraising efforts and the best methods for finding new donors will be discussed.

Mobilizing the Grassroots

Belmont 4

Chet Rucinski, Pamela Rucinski

Recording 33

Saving lives and changing hearts begins in your neighborhood. The right-to-life movement has always been a bottom-up, volunteer-driven institution, at its best when it is a local and organic part of a community. Whether the need is educating the public, reaching out to those in need, or addressing public policy, right-to-lifers use many helping hands to build a life-affirming society from the bottom up. Find out how to organize your community for life through a local chapter, how to plan and hold events, where and how to find pro-lifers who are ready to work, and how to use the many tools and resources at your disposal as an advocate for life. This workshop will help save lives.

Conversion, Compassion, and the Clinics

Sully

Jewels Green, Catherine Adair

Recording 34

Conversion, Compassion, and the Clinics: Similarities and differences between Planned Parenthood and Independent Abortion Facilities; first-trimester and second-trimester abortions and how these experiences shaped two similar but unique conversions in post-abortive former clinic workers: Catherine Adair, former worker in Planned Parenthood first and second-trimester abortion facility and Jewels Green, former worker in an independent first-trimester abortion facility. This workshop and panel discussion will offer a unique opportunity for attendees to learn about the internal functioning of different abortion facilities including patient flow, counseling, and medical practices. Both presenters will share their personal abortion experiences and working in abortion facilities as well as the details of their conversions and transition to public pro-life advocacy.

Religious Outreach: Establishing a Pro-Life Presence in Community Churches

Piedmont 1

Ernest L. Ohlhoff

Recording 35

The speaker in this workshop will provide hands-on, practical suggestions on how to build an effective pro-life committee in your local church. The four key activities necessary to build and maintain an effective church pro-life committee – education, identification, organization, and communication – will be emphasized. Handouts will include reprints from the power point presentation that will be shown in this session, organizational guidelines, project guidelines, and other valuable information.

Essential Elements for Successful Election in 2016

Piedmont 2

David N. O'Steen, Ph.D.; Darla St. Martin, Karen Cross

Recording 36

The speakers in this session will discuss what the pro-life movement must do now and in the coming months to prepare for a victory for unborn children in 2016.

Workshops

4:45 PM- 6:00 PM

Be the Revolution:

Why Grassroots Organizing is the Power of the Pro-Life Movement Chelsea Shields

Belmont 2
Recording 37

Grassroots organizing is more than just the foundation of the pro-life movement, it's what gives our movement the power to shake people out of their apathy, affect legislation and elections, and save lives! Learn practical tips as well as general principles that will help you inspire and activate pro-lifers in your state and in your community.

Adult Stem-Cells: Saving Lives Now David Prentice, Ph.D.

Belmont 3
Recording 38

Adult stem cells from bone marrow, umbilical cord blood, nasal tissue, and even fat tissue are being used right now to improve health and save lives, all without harming the stem cell donor. Over 1 million people around the globe have been helped with adult stem cell transplants, and dozens of diseases and conditions are being treated. Embryonic stem cell and fetal tissue research, in contrast, rely on the destruction of young human lives and have not benefitted humanity. After this workshop, you'll know more about stem cells than most doctors. Become prepared to advocate for lifesaving science.

When They Say... You Say Olivia Gans Turner

Belmont 4
Recording 39

A must-attend session every year will give suggestions on how to respond in a positive manner when discussing abortion, including the hard-issue questions or situations. The speaker will explain how you can learn to speak in sound bites, provide specific tools for you to use to better promote the pro-life message, and give hints on how to get your pro-life message across to your friends, family, and the public in general.

Dying of Thirst! Medicine's Intentional Killing Through Dehydration, and How To Protect the Vulnerable Brian Johnston

Sully
Recording 40

Throughout the nation, vulnerable patients are at immediate risk of euthanasia by intentional neglect. The procedure is simple and effective and its results are always the same: death. But death is not due to an underlying illness or disease. It is intentional neglect and it is intentionally lethal. What can be done to protect you and your loved ones? How can you equip others to understand and take positive action in this era of health care reform and cost-cutting?

Protecting Unborn Children from Dismemberment Abortions Across the United States Karen Cross, Anthony Lauinger

Piedmont 1
Recording 41

A dismemberment abortion is an abortion which dismembers a living unborn child and extracts or her him one piece at a time from his or her mother's uterus by the use of forceps with sharp metal jaws to grasp parts of the developing baby, which are then twisted and torn away. Learn how you can take action to protect unborn babies from this brutal method of abortion.

The Myth of the "Unwanted Child"- Special Needs Adoption Joleigh Little

Piedmont 2
Recording 42

First of all, there are no unwanted children...only children whose families haven't yet been found. Secondly, the speaker will tell you what is being done about the children other people might label "unwanted." Learn from an adoptive mom of two daughters, one with special needs, just how precious each and every life is. Find out how you can pray and advocate for the children who wait, often in horrifying circumstances, abandoned simply because they have special needs.

New American Export to Asia: The Cover-Up of the Abortion-Breast Cancer Link Belmont 2
Joel Brind, Ph.D. Recording 43

Predictably, the export of abortion to Asia has contributed to skyrocketing breast cancer rates in Asia. A torrent of studies from Asia within the last decade have confirmed, yet again, the reality of the abortion-breast cancer link (ABC Link). And now, we see the troubling evidence of new studies from China and the Indian subcontinent which cover up the link, despite the ABC link's impact on literally millions of Asian women. This workshop will include a brief review of evidence of the ABC link itself, and the exposure of the junk science used to cover it up.

Making the Pro-Life Argument from the Secular Perspective Belmont 3
Kelsey Hazzard, J.D. Recording 44

Learn how to make pro-life arguments based on secular premises from the founder and president of Secular Pro-Life. Elective abortion can be made unthinkable by arguing that the unborn is a human being and that human beings possess human rights.

How the Abortion Industry is Handling the Abortionist Shortage Belmont 4
Randall K. O'Bannon, Ph.D. Recording 45

Clinics are closing all over the country and a lot of abortionists are retiring. That means fewer abortions, and this is obviously good news for unborn babies and their pro-life defenders. Not surprisingly, the abortion industry sees these trends quite differently and has been taking a number of steps to try and shore up business and better market their product. This is part of the reason behind not only abortion pills, but web-cam abortions, as well as efforts to redefine the entire concept of the "surgical" abortion so that less trained personnel can be brought in to do the job. This workshop will key you into the latest developments so that you can better recognize and resist these efforts in your state.

Health Care Without Rationing or Deficits Sully
Jennifer Popik, J.D. Recording 46

Learn the hidden ways Obamacare is stifling your family's access to treatment to prevent death. We are told again and again, on the one hand, that America can't possibly afford to keep spending more on health care, and on the other hand, how we can't repeal Obamacare without denying health insurance to many who've come to count on it. Learn why both claims are wrong, and how we COULD structure our health insurance system to assist those who genuinely need help affording adequate health insurance without rationing health care for all.

Social Media Skills for Pro-Life Activists Piedmont 1
Luis Zaffirini, Andrew Bair Recording 47

This workshop will focus on how pro-life individuals can use their unique voice online to make a maximum impact for the unborn through social media. Social media presents an inexpensive, accessible, and powerful medium to express your beliefs and share important right-to-life news and information. Learn about all the tools at your disposal and how to put them to use for life.

Bringing Life-Affirming Resources and Support to Teens in Your Community Piedmont 2
Elizabeth Spillman Recording 48

StandUpGirl.com is a leader in providing life-affirming resources and support to young women around the world. Learn how you can utilize the resources and volunteers that we have to reach those abortion-minded girls in your local area.

Saturday, July 9

Workshops 1:15 PM- 2:30 PM

Fighting Goliath: How To Take Aim at Planned Parenthood Angela Franks, Ph.D.

Belmont 2
Recording 49

Are pro-lifers helpless against the abortion giant Planned Parenthood? Planned Parenthood infiltrates our communities by relying on its unearned respectability. Pro-lifers can be successful Davids by showing the world Planned Parenthood's true face. The workshop will provide peaceful and effective strategies for educating your community about the nation's largest abortion chain.

Abortion, A Death in All Our Families

Belmont 3
Recording 50

David Russell, DVM; Rev. John Bright, Betty Fralich, Karen Cross, Rachel Benda, Olivia Gans Turner

Post-abortion experiences of fathers, grandparents, and families. Why every abortion effects the whole family, including yours. What can you do to help heal a loved one in pain from an abortion experience.

Perinatal Hospice: A Caring Response to Life-Limiting Prenatal Diagnosis Emily Macedonia, Nick Macedonia, Marie Anderson, M.D.

Belmont 4
Recording 51

Upon receiving an unexpected, potentially life-limiting diagnosis, parents are often left feeling devastated, fearful, and overwhelmed. Perinatal hospice is a comprehensive model of care that supports these families along their emotional, medical, and spiritual journeys. Join us as we explore perinatal hospice and the personal story of one family who carried their sick child to term with courage and joy.

Ideas to Motivate and Activate the Pro-Life Students on Your College Campus Veronica Arnold, Doreen Shirek

Sully
Recording 52

The speakers in this workshop will provide information on working one on one with the pro-life youth on your college campuses. From training ideas, to funding the program, to describing projects that they can do to help the right-to-life movement in your state, to growing the idea and promoting it statewide, all ideas will be discussed and materials shared.

The Pro-Life Movement and Congress: 2016 Douglas Johnson

Piedmont 1
Recording 53

National Right to Life's veteran Federal Legislation Director Douglas Johnson discusses National Right to Life's work to advance the pro-life agenda and to resist the Obama abortion agenda in the current 114th Congress.

Communicate, Convert, and Commit: The Art of Pro-Life Persuasion Dr. Jean Garton, Raimundo Rojas, Lori Kehoe, Dave Andrusko

Piedmont 2
Recording 54

Four pro-life authors and grassroots activists will share the strategies they've utilized to make the case for life in every imaginable situation, whether in front of a staunch pro-life audience or facing the glare of the most hostile anti-life environment. Whether the setting is a debate or writing for the web, there will be tips covering A-to-Z. Come and learn why one size does not fit all audiences.

Building a Pro-Life Youth Movement:
Organizing Successful Pro-Life Camps and Training Initiatives
Krista Corbello, Alexandra Seghers

Belmont 2
Recording 55

How can you build up and sustain a pro-life legacy? Long-term pro-life success begins with YOUTH! Many states host day-long, weekend, and week-long youth educational programs for high school and college age students. Come learn some simple steps to make these camps and initiatives a success and learn why they are key for your state. Students who attend leave invigorated, motivated, and ready to stand up for pro-life issues and take on leadership roles in their schools and communities. This initiative is invaluable to the pro-life movement! We may be biased, but we think every state should have one!

30-Year Anniversary of American Victims of Abortion
Olivia Gans Turner, Karen Cross, Betty Fralich, Greg Hasek, MA-MFT

Belmont 3
Recording 56

What happened when post-abortive parents shared the truth about abortion with the rest of society. The legacy of laws, counseling, media and political advances followed when the conversation included the effect of abortion on the mothers. How has the pro-life movement responded and welcomed women after abortions. How should you respond now?

Dealing with Sloppy Science, Medical Myths, and Pro-Abortion Propaganda
Randall K. O'Bannon, Ph.D.

Belmont 4
Recording 57

Whenever there is a legislative or social development that abortion's advocates do not like, it's only a matter of time before abortion's academic and research allies publish some "study" supporting the benefits of unregulated, publicly-funded abortion, which the media dutifully report and the courts cite as authoritative. It is not easy to dislodge these once they have gotten established, but these critical claims must be challenged. In this workshop, we will look at some of the more recent high profile studies that have garnered lots of attention.

Umbert the Unborn: A Womb with a View

Belmont 2

Gary Cangemi

Recording 61

Pro-Life cartoonist Gary Cangemi shares his creation, Umbert the Unborn, with conference participants as Umbert tackles the most current issues confronting the pro-life movement with Gary's signature sense of humor and philosophical insight. In this updated version of Gary's workshop, Umbert takes on Obamacare, the presidential elections, Planned Parenthood, and a host of other hot-button topics of the day from his pre-natal pulpit. As always, Gary guides his audience in the creation of a new Umbert comic strip which will be featured in a national publication. A game of Unborn Babies in Jeopardy and a few of Umbert's pro-life parody songs will cap off an entertaining and inspirational session.

Recording 63

Jeanne E. Head, R.N., National Right to Life president for international affairs representative to the United Nations, and Raimundo Rojas, National Right to Life director of Latino Outreach, will describe the ongoing battles at the UN in New York and Geneva to prevent the establishment of abortion as a fundamental human right worldwide and, in particular, the increasing threats to the unborn in African countries.

Six Ways to Defeat a Pro-Life Candidate

Sully

Karen Cross

Recording 64

In every major election since 1980, pro-life candidates have had a "pro-life increment" or advantage among voters who base their vote on abortion. In a close race, this pro-life increment can make the difference between winning and losing. Unfortunately, some pro-abortion candidates win because part of the pro-life community doesn't help elect candidates, it helps defeat them. When pro-abortion candidates win, babies lose. Learn how you might unknowingly defeat pro-life candidates.

Chapter volunteers meet pro life supporters year round at the local level. State right-to-life offices organize and strengthen those relationships with accurate information using enhanced computer processes. Learn how to schedule those computer processes for timely grassroots responses to upcoming legislation and multiple local events.

"Planned Propaganda."

Piedmont 2

Ryan Bomberger

Recording 66

Over the past year, we've seen some of the most ferocious journalistic jujitsu in our lifetime. Shocking undercover videos have been released revealing the true essence of Planned Parenthood — a cold, callous, commercial abortion and aborted baby parts trafficking chain — and mainstream media wants to spar with the messengers. With his own powerful story of escaping the social injustice of abortion, Ryan Bomberger presents an edgy, inspirational (and even funny) multimedia presentation about America's biggest hoax. He exposes the politics, the racism, the sexism, the fraud, and the science-shredding activism of the billion-dollar abortion chain.
